

Contents

Foreword	vii
-----------------------	------------

Jeremy Kilpatrick
University of Georgia, Athens, Georgia

Part I: Introduction

1. A Sojourn into the Empowering Uncertainties of Teaching and Learning Mathematics for Social Change	3
--	---

David W. Stinson
Georgia State University, Atlanta, Georgia
Anita A. Wager
University of Wisconsin–Madison, Madison, Wisconsin

Part II: Historical Development and Theoretical Perspectives of Critical and Social Justice Mathematics

2. The Historical Development of Criticalmathematics Education	21
--	----

Arthur B. Powell
Rutgers University–Newark, Newark, New Jersey

3. Critical Mathematics Education: A Dialogical Journey	35
---	----

Ole Skovsmose
Aalborg University, Denmark (Emeritus)

4. Beyond Math Content and Process: Proposals for Underlying Aspects of Social Justice Education	49
---	----

Marilyn Frankenstein
University of Massachusetts Boston, Boston, Massachusetts

5. Reflections on Teaching and Learning Mathematics for Social Justice in Urban Schools	63
--	----

Eric (Rico) Gutstein
University of Illinois at Chicago, Chicago, Illinois

Part III: Teacher Education and Professional Development

6. Beyond Apples, Puppy Dogs, and Ice Cream:
Preparing Teachers to Teach Mathematics for Equity and Social Justice..... 81
Courtney Koestler
University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona
7. Challenging Beliefs and Dispositions:
Learning to Teach Mathematics for Social Justice 99
Jacqueline Leonard
University of Colorado Denver, Denver, Colorado
Brian R. Evans
Pace University, New York, New York
8. Is This Teaching Mathematics for Social Justice?
Teachers' Conceptions of Mathematics Classrooms for Social Justice..... 113
Tonya Gau Bartell
University of Delaware, Newark, Delaware
9. Valuing the Process:
Working with Teachers around Mathematics for Social Justice 127
Lidia Gonzalez
City University of New York–York College, New York, New York

Part IV: Teaching Mathematics for Social Justice in the Classroom

10. Numbers Count: Mathematics across the Curriculum 147
Bob Peterson
La Escuela Fratney, Milwaukee, Wisconsin
11. Toys for Boys? Challenging Domestic Violence Using Mathematics 161
David Stocker
City View Alternative School, Toronto, Canada
12. Five Things You Should Probably Know about Teaching Mathematics for Social Justice 175
John O. Wamsted
Benjamin E. Mays High School, Atlanta, Georgia

13. Teaching Mathematics for Social Justice:
The End of “When Are We Ever Going to Use This?” 187

Ginny C. Powell

Georgia Perimeter College, Decatur, Georgia

Part V: Conclusion

14. A Broad Concept of Social Justice 201

Ubiratan D'Ambrosio

State University of Campinas, São Paulo, Brazil (Emeritus)