

Search for NCTM Editor-in-Chief

The National Council of Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM) solicits applications for the position of Editor-in-Chief for its new pre-K–grade 12 practitioner journal that will launch in January 2020.

This is an exciting opportunity to lead and influence a new NCTM endeavor. The editor will be appointed by the NCTM Board of Directors on the recommendation of its Publishing Committee. Beginning June 1, 2018, for an expected four-year term, the editor will assist staff in the development of the new journal. The editor's responsibilities are expected to include making publication decisions, identifying Associate Editors, and coordinating their work.

Candidates should be educators with outstanding records in mathematics education and demonstrated editorial, managerial, and leadership skills. This is a part-time, volunteer position, and NCTM will provide an honorarium and/or institutional release time/buy-out time.

Letters of intent, including a CV, should be submitted by April 16, 2018, to Eleanore Tapscott, NCTM Director of Publications, at etapscott@nctm.org.
