

thanks from the editorial panel

In spring 2013, Lori Knox and Bonnie Spence completed their term as members of the MTMS Editorial Panel. Knox has served as chair for two generous years. She worked hard, along with Spence, to bring readers the February 2013 Focus Issue titled “The Mathematics of STEM.” Their contributions, insights, and dedication have been invaluable.

The departments in MTMS are always well received by readers, for which much of the credit goes to the dedicated department editors. The role of editor often involves more than editing the work that comes in from outside sources; in many instances, it involves recruiting writers and sometimes writing the material. We wish to recognize Stephen P. Smith and David Spangler, coeditors of the popular Cartoon Corner, and send extra thanks to Smith, who will be passing the torch of this department. James Dogbey and Barbara Zorin have worked on Mathematical Explorations together; we thank Dogbey for his service as he departs and as the department welcomes a new co-editor. We publicly wish to note our great appreciation for Trena Wilkerson, a former Editorial Panel member and chair, who has steered the Quick Reads department and has overseen an increase in submissions. David Rock and Joel Amidon provided variety each month in the Palette of Problems. We thank Rock as he completes his generous service. Edward S. Mooney and coeditor Sherry Bair ably shepherd the Solve It! and Solve It! Student Thinking departments. Debra Johanning, responsible for Informing Practice, worked this year with Amy Ellis. Erik Tillema, along with past Panel member and Board member Fred Dillon, contribute their time to Math for Real.

The Editorial Panel and NCTM are grateful for the creative and consistent contributions of all the volunteers.
