00:30:42 Cindy Bryant: Hi @LeAnne from the Bahamas!
00:31:51 Cindy Bryant: Hello Eko from Indonesia!
00:32:08 HILARY OMOKAFFE: I'm an editor for the Iowa Council of teachers of Mathematics.

00:32:47 Nicolette Nalu: lol
00:32:54 C Robertson: 🍷
00:32:56 Nicolette Nalu: Love the music addition!
00:33:22 Cindy Bryant: Please change your chat setting to All panelist and attendees so everyone can see your chat posts!
00:33:45 Dian Kurniawan: mathematics department, isn't it..
00:33:49 Bernita Johnson: Hi Nicolette! You are my book study buddy!
00:34:22 Nicolette Nalu: HI Bernita! Good to see u on here! :)
00:34:53 harry holloway: It looks like desmos
00:35:04 Elizabeth Devereaux-Cox: Very exciting interactive element!!
00:35:13 Aya Zvaigzne: That is just fantastic.
00:35:15 Sara Lynn Cannady: Sara Lynn Cannady from Sampson County Schools
00:35:16 Cindy Bryant: Love the apps being included!
00:35:21 Elaine Everts: That is cool!
00:35:27 harry holloway: The on line version is better than the print!
00:35:41 Maureen Devlin: Have been using Geogebra for remote teaching--good tool
00:36:03 Dian Kurniawan: nice tools...
00:36:05 mike murphy: khan a
00:36:25 Lori McDevitt: Ive been reading your online articles and love the imbedded videos and apps
00:36:28 harry holloway: wow, this in interesting.
00:36:45 Emily Kavanagh: This is great!
00:36:46 Stephenia Courtney: Hello from Las Vegas, NV
00:37:24 Nora Marasigan: Hello from Batangas, Philippines
00:37:28 Anne Booth: This was such a fabulous article!
00:37:32 Shonda Moore: @Stephanie Which school are you at?
00:37:42 Lori McDevitt: the ability to see the ideas in action in the videos
00:37:45 Dawn Geshwender: interactive
00:37:45 harry holloway: so the write for this journal we need videos? and technology?
00:37:47 Nicolette Nalu: Links to videos of Ss DOING the math reasoning.
00:37:47 Mary Dahn: interactive nature of the journal
00:37:49 Linda Rodriguez: easy access to the tools discussed
00:37:50 Nell Thurlow: apps and videos embedded
00:37:50 Teresa Lara-Meloy: Embedded Video and apps
00:37:51 Amy Johnson: Apps and websites!
00:37:53 Lesa Turner: feels "alive"
00:37:54 Rolando II Delos Reyes: diagrams
00:37:55 Gail Dean: I like the idea of the diagram to access specific information.

00:37:56 Kendra Edwards: I love having access to videos so I can see the ideas in practice

00:37:56 Damali Pittman: Videos

00:37:57 Elaine Everts: It is exciting that it is interactive.

00:38:00 Kathy Rubendall: I love watching classroom videos of implementation

00:38:01 Elizabeth Devereaux-Cox: multi-level (broad spectrum) videos and interactive practices

00:38:02 Maureen Devlin: These are great tools that make the article easy to integrate with classroom teaching or professional shaer

00:38:03 Catherine VanNetta: classroom video to see vignettes of teaching

00:38:03 Elsie Sheldon: links to videos

00:38:04 Dawn Geshwender: time saving

00:38:04 Janice Magauay: The interactive feature makes it more interesting

00:38:04 Shonda Moore: Apps in the journal, video links and downloadable pdf

00:38:05 April Thompson: Connecting to videos and apps

00:38:06 Nicolette Nalu: easily accessible while reading.

00:38:06 Sima Deeb: Links to videos and the map diagram is exciting!

00:38:06 Toni Galassini: The "interactiveness" of the article.

00:38:07 Emily Kavanagh: The apps

00:38:07 Anne Booth: I love that it spans the grade levels

00:38:07 Macobia Harris: The visuals and videos are a nice change to a journal

00:38:08 LaWanda Speas: videos

00:38:08 Amy Johnson: interactive, so much fun to read and play

00:38:08 Roberta Yeager: How to incorporate these ideas in my article

00:38:08 Bobbi Tucker: being able to easily pick and choose what you want

00:38:09 Aya Zvaigzne: apps, interactive navigation, embedded vids

00:38:09 Lloyd Baker: Interactive nature

00:38:10 Stephenia Courtney: interactive

00:38:11 Bernita Johnson: The advantage of being able to access the digital materials quickly

00:38:11 Rolando II Delos Reyes: graphs that are interactive

00:38:11 Robbi Berry: Love the apps and that it is interactive

00:38:12 Christina Tully: ease of digital links and embedded content

00:38:14 Patti Parsons: The apps!

00:38:14 Sharon Black-MacKinnon: the interactive feature

00:38:16 Laurie Barker: The fact that there are links to websites and videos.

00:38:16 Leslie Waltz: The videos would help get so much more out of the article.

00:38:16 Shashidhar Belbase: Embedded videos and apps sound cool things.

00:38:17 Joseph Prevost: That it's available to be read, and enlighten

00:38:17 Dawn Geshwender: use in class

00:38:17 Cathy Hutchins: As a K-8 math coach, I always struggled with which journal to receive. Now, I can see across elementary and middle school content.

00:38:19 Viragni Chand: interesting that they are interactive

00:38:23 Nicolette Nalu: INTERACTIVE FEATURES!!

00:38:25 Skip Fennell: the ability to move from the manuscript to affordances and back is a nice feature.

00:38:25 Arlene Bachinela: content being enhanced with apps and videos

00:38:25 beth blumberg: Ability to use video or appa

00:38:28 Jaclyn Murray: Videos are great for showing prospective teachers what best practice looks like.

00:38:28 Lesly Brown: The video links. So many students learn visually.

00:38:30 Sarah Dickie: The interactive element is so interesting!

00:38:32 Leanne McMahon: The interactivity and ability to manipulate

00:38:33 Sharon Black-MacKinnon: ability to use videos

00:38:36 harry holloway: Interactive is nice, but it means that I am less interested in writing for it....

00:38:43 Sharon Black-MacKinnon: ability to try the apps

00:38:45 Nell Thurlow: writing across grade bands prek-12

00:38:46 Silvia Vargas: As an educator I don't have unlimited time to read professional articles so It's nice to have the affordances of going straight to what I want to read about without reading the whole article,

00:38:54 Anastasia Alexiou: Visually Seeing What You Are Reading!

00:39:00 Gayle Arbaugh: videos with student examples implementing the idea of the article

00:39:08 Dian Kurniawan: I hope my article accepted here sometimes...

00:39:17 Stephenia Courtney: the ability to reach all Learning styles

00:39:17 Laurie Barker: Can we use a digital tool that is not our property?

00:39:43 Silvia Vargas: What are the benefits of getting an article published for a full time elementary teacher?

00:40:25 Laurie Barker: Are we responsible for getting permissions from other authors if we use quotes or content or is that something you do?

00:41:18 Karoulin Aljoris: how we read the articles ????

00:41:19 Dian Kurniawan: novelty

00:41:29 Sandra Davis: Will we have access to the slides after the presentation?

00:41:45 Mohamed Jamaludeen Thirapusa Mohaideen: Awesome - Mohamed from CT.

00:41:54 Chonda Long: A PDF of the slides and a recording will be available at www.nctm.org/100 tomorrow

00:42:09 Sandra Davis: Thank you!

00:42:32 Cindy Bryant: One of the greatest benefits of getting an article published is that you are sharing your experience, knowledge, mathematics, etc. with others! A great way to network with other mathematics educators!

00:42:33 harry holloway: I have presented may times, but people have written about my stuff.

00:42:55 Karoulin Aljoris: how to read the articles that already published ????

00:43:05 Karoulin Aljoris: learn from other teachers

00:43:15 Emily Kavanagh: Love this diagram

00:44:02 Stephenia Courtney: preparing your thoughts prior to writing is powerful

00:44:42 Emily Kavanagh: I always do a rough draft

00:45:32 Kathryn Beamer: Do you have to have classroom evidence? My school board regulations around this are very strict and make it almost impossible to share student work.

00:45:36 harry holloway: Does all the technology really improve mathematical understanding?

00:46:09 harry holloway: no is is write, re-write, re-write and re-write...

00:46:22 Skip Fennell: Classroom evidence beyond COVID-19 will be a challenge for many.

00:46:46 Dian Kurniawan: through observation ?

00:46:46 Cindy Bryant: If tools are used properly, they have the potential to impact learning and understanding.

00:46:55 harry holloway: yes, sharing videos of students is a big no-no in my system.

00:46:58 Teresa Finken: yes, I like to write the major focus first - the 'thing' I want to share, then go back later to tackle other steps as Rebecca is saying.

00:47:25 Sandra Davis: Very helpful. Thank you!

00:47:35 Nicolette Nalu: GREAT EXPLANATION!!

00:47:49 Cindy Bryant: 113

00:47:58 Dian Kurniawan: pardon..

00:48:04 Nora Marasigan: Thank you!

00:48:49 Silvia Vargas: Have you ever considered publishing articles regarding Dual Language programs and math instruction in Spanish?

00:48:51 Mohamed Jamaludeen Thirapusa Mohaideen: 113

00:49:13 Cathy Hutchins: How do you know that it was volume 113 without looking at the journal?

00:49:30 Cindy Bryant: I had the journal on my desk.

00:49:41 Jolene Peterson: why 113?

00:49:49 Bernita Johnson: HAAAAHA Cindy!

00:49:59 Cindy Bryant: :-)

00:50:17 Sharon Black-MacKinnon: you were wellprepared Cindy

00:50:39 Mark Phipps: 113 was on an earlier slide

00:50:41 Cindy Bryant: It's one of the few publications that I keep on my desk all the time. :-)

00:51:06 Cindy Bryant: I hope you all will submit articles for publication!!!

00:51:44 Dian Kurniawan: always Prof. agreeing ?

00:52:00 Teresa Lara-Meloy: Thank you, Dr. Adams for sharing how you felt initially.

00:52:50 Cindy Bryant: Yes, they can @Leah Rose

00:53:16 Eleanore Tapscott: Angela, Thomasenia, Rick, Rebecca -- there were some comments about showing student work or videos of students not being okay with the district.

00:53:23 harry holloway: I have done so much hands on work, and now everyone is using technology...

00:53:32 Stephenia Courtney: I like the songl

00:53:39 Stephenia Courtney: single focus

00:54:12 harry holloway: building pop-up books in geometry class..

00:54:42 Firoza Rahman: the pop up book sounds like a cool idea

00:54:53 harry holloway: I did it for years..

00:55:06 Stephenia Courtney: contextual understanding great

00:55:24 harry holloway: a lot of constructions and spcial reasoning

00:55:50 Stephenia Courtney: I would love to do a pop up book!

00:56:21 Karoulin Aljoris: good that is helpful
00:56:40 harry holloway: yeah, I could give you the outline for how to do it.
00:56:44 Sandra Davis: Thank you, Thomasenia. Love your name, by the way!
00:56:45 Elaine Everts: Pop up books look like fun
00:57:07 harry holloway: I could do an article on it, but I am not teaching geometry anymore.
00:57:07 Gail Dean: nice there are various editors who can help
00:57:25 Faith Peddie: @Gail, right? This is awesome to have so many folks on the panel.
00:57:40 Cindy Bryant: The team is really providing useful information to assist you in writing your submission!
00:57:41 Teresa Finken: How about revising an article I previously published in a state Journal, to submit to MTLT?
00:58:37 Sandra Davis: How can you become a blinded reviewer?
00:58:47 C Robertson: Harry Holloway did u make pop up with which grade?
00:59:08 harry holloway: 8th grade honors geo.
00:59:27 harry holloway: I have also done the geometry of pop up cards with grade 5 and 6
00:59:36 Sandra Davis: What is the percentage of submissions that ultimately get published?
00:59:54 C Robertson: I'd like to know more. May I have your email?
01:00:12 Clayton Edwards: Becoming a reviewer:
<https://www.nctm.org/Publications/write-review-referee/journals/Review-for-Mathematics-Teacher-Educator/>
01:00:13 Rebecca Robichaux-Davis : Thank you to everyone for joining us! Feel free to contact me if you need help as you prepare your manuscripts! rrr102@msstate.edu
01:00:23 harry holloway: hollowayh@wps.k12.va.us
01:00:32 Teresa Finken: Will the questions asked here get answered?
01:00:42 Dian Kurniawan: I have published article till submitted but never accepted about one years ago
01:00:44 Bernita Johnson: Harry you should submit your pop up idea! I am interested and it sounds like a fun thing to do, if we ever get back into school.
01:00:54 Sandra Davis: I like that! Think of the rejection letter as an invitation to try again. <3
01:01:03 Gail Dean: How long does the process of 01:01:06 Firoza Rahman: Harry, I'll be reaching out to you as well.
01:01:15 C Robertson: Thank you, Harry!
01:01:21 Cindy Bryant: @Sandra, great way to view the rejection letter!
01:01:35 Gail Dean: How long does the process take from submission of an article to final decision?
01:02:01 Dian Kurniawan: variously I think..
01:02:07 harry holloway: Glad too!
01:02:18 Pamela Liegl: Thanks, Angela, Rebecca, and Thomasenia for a very useful presentation.
01:02:30 Gail Dean: How should we determine timing of articles--dependent on how long the process takes?
01:02:30 Cindy Bryant: Great job ladies!
01:02:51 Stephenia Courtney: VERY informative and interesting!
01:03:05 Teresa Finken: Helpful information, clearly presented, THank you!

01:03:32 Cindy Bryant: I look forward to seeing published submissions from many of you!

01:04:01 Tierra Fender: I would love to learn more about the pop-up lesson. I tried doing pop-up cards during a unit on parallelograms, but it did not go as well as I wished.

01:04:07 Bette Barkley: How do you become a blinded reviewer?

01:04:20 harry holloway: I am too old to care about winning...

01:04:21 Clayton Edwards:
<https://www.nctm.org/Publications/write-review-referee/journals/Review-for-Mathematics-Teacher-Educator/>

01:04:29 Dian Kurniawan:
<https://www.ijicc.net/index.php/volume-10-2019/136-vol-10-iss-2>

01:04:52 Dian Kurniawan: i have one

01:05:06 Gail Dean: Any special types of articles you would like to see but have not have not been yet submitted?

01:05:36 Sandra Davis: Great question, Gail!

01:06:19 Cindy Bryant: So true Thomasenia!

01:06:30 Melissa Boston: How to learn about how to become a reviewer:
<https://www.nctm.org/Publications/write-review-referee/journals/Review-for-Mathematics-Teacher-Educator/>

01:07:06 Elaine Everts: Thanks for sharing Clayton!

01:07:06 Gail Dean: I would like to see articles on needs of parents and wht worked for them at home in trying to help their students during online learning.

01:07:50 Stephenia Courtney: That would be interesting to see Gail Dean!

01:07:56 Sandra Davis: Is there training for blind reviewers?

01:08:13 Elizabeth Devereaux-Cox: This is so helpful! Thanks you to everyone!

01:08:32 harry holloway: thanks!

01:09:19 Emily Kavanagh: This has been super helpful.

01:10:07 Stephenia Courtney: Thank you again for another great webinar!

01:10:21 harry holloway: origami for the math classroom?

01:10:31 harry holloway: Good questions are better than good answers.

01:10:41 Gail Dean: fun on origami!

01:10:58 Maureen Devlin: That's what I worked on today--students collaborated online in designing a summer place space--it was an interesting challenge

01:10:59 Tanya Landry: love origami

01:11:04 harry holloway: things that no one cares about because it does not involve comuters

01:11:19 Teresa Finken: It may be helpful fora writer to record spoken ideas first, then get them transferred to print, then a writer has something to begin with, and the initial concerns of writing are passed over by using speech to print.

01:12:57 Elaine Everts: I think it would be interesting on how students felt about virtual learning. My students had reflection discussions yesterday about the last few months. What worked and how we can do things better.

01:13:14 Teresa Finken: social justice!

01:13:17 Mark Phipps: Teresa, you might consider holding your own Zoom meeting, no attendees, recording it with captioning enabled and see if it does a good job of doing that.

01:13:25 Sharon Black-MacKinnon: Thank you so much for sharing all this wonderful information.

01:13:31 Maureen Devlin: Thank you - this was very helpful
