00:50:39 flores.ryan: Is CSDT a free web-based software?
00:51:01 Charlotte Auen:
https://csdt.org/static/CSDT_Single_Page/CornrowCurves/cornrows.html 00:52:24 Jasia Clark: Yes! This platform also allow students to construct their own understanding and knowledge as they work through the different simulations!
00:53:04 Cindy Bryant: <https://csdt.org/>
00:53:13 Cindy Bryant: Supported by the National Science Foundation through NSF grant #1640014.
00:54:46 Tracy Short Pinkett: Oh to be a DELTA GIRL!!
00:55:07 Yolanda Parker: :-)
00:55:27 Trena Wilkerson: Hi Yolanda! :-)
00:55:28 Dawn Lopez: I agree!!!! DST
00:55:53 Anett Chicomny Pon: Awesome, what a great connection to algebra!
00:56:09 Bukky Leonard: Oh to be! ▲I love this step translation to an algebraic expression!!
00:56:55 flores.ryan: Does anyone know of any other source of culturally sustaining curriculum for advanced math (precalculus and calculus) 00:57:33 flores.ryan: This is very good stuff. Exactly the type of thing that I'm looking to implement in my classes.
00:57:51 Susan May: @flores.ryan - I just got Robert Berry's book: High School Mathematics Lesson to explore, understand, and respond to social injustice.
00:58:22 Iain Partridge: Issue I encounter is talented students who don't want to share. If I peek over their shoulder they get upset 01:00:18 Trena Wilkerson: Book Susan mentioned:
<https://www.nctm.org/Store/Products/High-School-Mathematics-Lessons-to-Explore,-Understand,-and-Respond-to-Social-Injustice/> A Great source!
01:00:49 flores.ryan: @Susan - I have actually been thinking about purchasing that book. Do you know if it has anything applicable to higher level mathematics...
01:01:03 Trena Wilkerson: @Laura I see a video of the two with the string

01:01:23 Chantell Waters: That was cool.

01:02:21 flores.ryan: Desha are you able to put the link to that string video in the chat?

01:03:47 Jasia Clark: <https://youtu.be/aiNl-EL6vfk>

01:04:48 Susan Bardenhagen: Is there a link to this COVID data interactive map?

01:05:05 Susan May: @flores.ryan - I've been looking at mostly geometry, but the Algebra and Functions chapter does seem to go to at least Alg II. There's also a nice Data, Stat, Probability section. But, not sure about precal/Calc

01:05:39 Jasia Clark:
<https://news.google.com/covid19/map?hl=en-US&gl=US&ceid=US%3Aen>

01:05:48 flores.ryan: Thank you!!

01:06:45 Yahira Robinson:
<https://news.google.com/covid19/map?hl=en-US&gl=US&ceid=US%3Aen>

01:07:49 Yolanda Parker: I love that! I haven't seen the graphic with the "Justice" part.

01:08:06 Lindsey McCullough: i love that graphic!

01:08:13 Jann Strube: Wonderful.

01:08:14 Christie Wuebbles: Yes! This was great!

01:08:16 Seema Shirali: Love this graphic

01:08:24 Lydia DeRuitter: Thank you so much! That was great!

01:08:26 Anett Chicomny Pon: Thank you love the last line. Best to you and family!

01:08:29 Seema Shirali: Thank you so much

01:08:32 flores.ryan: Thank you Desha!!

01:08:37 Matty Lau: Thank you!
