1. Salina: This is fifteen. Fifteen take away two... it will be fifteen, fourteen, thirteen. So you have twelve left. (Teacher comes over)
2. Teacher: Ok so let's do this again. So fifteen minus two, what is that?
3. Salina: Um, twelve.
4. Adam: Twelve.
5. Teacher: Fifteen minus two is twelve?
6. Adam: No (counting on fingers). Thirteen.
7. Teacher: You think it's thirteen now or twelve?
8. Adam: Thirteen.
9. Teacher: Can you explain it to Salina 'cause she thinks it's twelve.
10. Adam: It's thirteen 'cause there's fifteen, minus two... fifteen, fourteen, thirteen (puts up 2 fingers, one at a time).
11. Salina: But you take out the thirteen, it will be twelve left.
12. Teacher: But that's minus three. We're minusing two. So now what is it? Fifteen minus two, now what is it?
13. Salina: Thirteen.
14. Adam: Thirteen.
15. Teacher: So is it true or false?
16. Adam: It's true.
17. Teacher: You think, are you sure it's true?
18. Adam: Mm-hmm.
19. Teacher: You bet your class money that it's true? (Adam shakes head) Would you bet your class money that it's true? (Salina shakes head) Have confidence in yourself!
20. Salina: Yeah.
21. Adam: I know I don't 'cause I get stuff wrong.
22. Teacher: Huh?
23. Adam: Sometimes I get stuff wrong...
24. Teacher: Yeah, but sometimes you get stuff right. (T leaves)
