SUBSCRIPTION AGENCY RATE SHEET

Prices valid for payments received 1 January through 31 May 2019 • Use only 2018 pricing until 1/1/19
Orders and order questions • (800) 235-7566 • nctm@nctm.org

Subscription agencies may order Institutional Print Subscriptions only for their clients, and a 10% agency commission is applicable to such orders.

Orders must include the following information for each recipient: Institution name (or a unique identifier for that end-user only), Reference number (if available) and full mailing address (either direct ship or reship). If you are renewing with a change of address, please provide the address used with last year's order and the reference number used the previous year if you do not maintain the same reference number for a single client from year to year. This information helps us avoid duplicate or missing subscriptions, and the resultant disruptions in service to your clients.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

NCTM will cease publication of Teaching Children Mathematics (TCM), Mathematics Teaching in the Middle School (MTMS), and Mathematics Teacher (MT) effective with the May 2019 issues. As a replacement to TCM, MTMS, and MT, NCTM will launch Mathematics Teacher: Learning and Teaching PK-12 (ISSN 0025-5769; IPM 1213431) in January 2020. Edited by Dr. Angela Barlow, MTLT will be a monthly publication that looks at new ways to bring relevant and engaging peer-reviewed content to elementary, middle school, and high school teachers, and other mathematics education professionals.

FOR MAILING OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES

- Add US $18 per year for the first subscription to each title for a given subscriber.
- For bulk subscriptions to a single title, add US $4 per year for each additional copy after the first.
- Airmail rates are US $50 per subscription per year for TCM, MTMS and MT, and US $28 for the JRME.
- There is NO discount on postage. Please calculate the agency commission before adding postage.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR AGENCIES

1. Subscription Start Dates: Orders are entered according to the date payment is received by NCTM. We do not backdate or honor requests for specific start dates to subscriptions, nor do we prorate subscriptions for other than full years. Back issues for the past 18 months are generally available for purchase – call or e-mail for prices.
2. Remittance: All orders must be accompanied by payment in order to be processed. Remit checks to:

National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, PO Box 75842, Baltimore, MD 21275-5842
3. Renewals: Agencies are given ample time to renew client subscriptions; NCTM does not send renewal notices directly to agency customers until one month prior to expiration.
4. Claims: Claims for missing issues covered by your client's subscription will be honored if placed in a timely fashion. Journal fulfillment begins with the issue month following the nominal start of the subscription. Your domestic subscribers should allow two (2) weeks after the cover date, Canadian subscribers three (3) weeks, and other subscribers outside the US and Canada should allow two (2) months before placing a claim with you. Domestic claims must be placed within three (3) months of the cover date, Canadian and other foreign claims within six (6) months.

NCTM's journals are available online for institutions through JSTOR. NCTM offers Electronic-Only and Print+Electronic subscriptions via the JSTOR Current Scholarship Program. Renew or order your new electronic subscriptions with JSTOR by contacting participation@jstor.org or 212-358-6400.
